David Greene is a Sales Executive with Glatfelter Public Entities, a division of Glatfelter Insurance Group. David joined Glatfelter in 2016 and currently focuses on water, sewer and wastewater entities, municipalities, school districts and school bus contractors in a seven-state Midwest territory.

He began his insurance career more than 25 years ago and has experience in sales, marketing and underwriting commercial accounts. Prior to coming on board with Glatfelter, David was a national program underwriter and senior marketing representative for a niche insurance carrier.

A graduate of Michigan State University, David received his bachelor's in marketing with an emphasis in sales management. He also earned the Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC), Registered Professional Liability Underwriter (RPLU) and Life Underwriter Training Council Fellow (LUTCF) designations.

David, his wife Kristina and daughter live in Richmond, Kentucky. He enjoys hiking, skiing, sailing, music, watching college football and basketball, spending time with his family and working on projects around the house.

Glatfelter Public Entities is a premier public entity program manager. We provide insurance and risk management solutions for over 4,000 public entities including those who treat, store and distribute water and wastewater; municipalities and miscellaneous public entities; public, private and charter educational institutions, and school bus contractors.
